Membership and Tuition Explanation

A membership payment of $25 is due for each academic year. The academic year runs from September through May. Member benefits (reduced tuition and travel prices) continue through the summer following the academic year.

There are three terms during each “school year”. When membership is paid, tuition is $35 per term and you may attend as many classes as you wish at all Open University locations. Registration for individual courses is not necessary. Membership dues help to support The Shepherd's Center and cannot be prorated if you join later in the year.
